Sif,

Subject - Regarding the representation of Yusuf Khan, Bill Collector on Rs 28/- in grade Rs 25-1-30 to exempt him from passing the Municipal and Local Boards Examination to entitle himself promotion to the grade of Revenue Inspector

In forwarding herewith the representation of the Bill Collector Yusuf Khan, together with his Service Register on the above subject, I have the honor to state that the official started his service in this Municipality on 10-9-1927 as Disinfection peon on Rs.11/- to begin with and thereafter promoted to the superior service as Dafterband from 15-10-1928. He has served in various capacities such as Octroi Manegar, Town Hall Mutsaddi, Assistant Sergeant, Van Vilas Mar'et and is now a permanent Bill Collector on Rs 28/- in grade Rs 25-1-30. He has been the Bill Collector for more than seven years and the chances of his further promotion are limited.

Although the official possesses no general educational qualification, it is reported that he has been doing very good work as Bill Collector and that he is well suited for collection work. He has also worked several times as in charge Revenue Inspector and done his work quite satisfactorily. The Revenue Officer recommends that as the official is well suited for a Revenue Inspector's post in view of his capacity for collection work and that in view of his long service, his case may be recommended to Government for exempting him from passing the required Departmental Examination to promote him as Revenue Inspector.

An instance may be mentioned wherein one Mr S Venkatasubba Rao with hardly any qualification was gradually promoted to the grade

first grade Revenue Inspector on Rs.50/-¹ a peon's place mainly in view of his ^{good} and long s.
this analogy, the case of the official Yusuf Khan who to be a capable hand in collection work, is also recommended way of encouraging really deserving officials

In the above circumstances, I request that orders of Government to exempt the official from passing the Departmental Examination with a view to promote him as a Revenue Inspector in a promotional vacancy may kindly be obtained

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

PRESIDENT

Submitted to the President, Coe Mysore

This applicant is a permanent bill collector on Rs 287 = in grade 25-1-30. He has put in a service gone sixteen years in this municipality and his collection work is exceptionally good. I find him best suited for the Rev Inspector's post. In view of his capacity for good work, and his lengthy service, his case deserves special sympathetic treatment and I strongly recommend that his case may be recommended to Government for exemption him from passing the Departmental test and to appoint him in higher appointments in the Executive line. His service Report is enclosed.

Can he manage correspondence work devolving upon a Rev Inspector?

What was the percentage of collection of this office during 1937-38?

Are there other Rev Inspectors who rose up without necessary general qualification?

He who is asked to submit 21/7

TO

The President ,
City Municipal Council, Mysore

Respectfully submitted through

The Revenue Officer, Mysore City Municipal Council, Mysore

Respected Sir,

I the undersigned beg to bring the following few lines for your kind and sympathetic consideration and request early favourable orders

I beg to state that I joined service in this Municipality on 10-9-1927 and I have put in about 17 years service I have worked in the Octroi Department as well as in the Revenue Department in the various capacities to the entire and best satisfaction of my superior officers I am a permanent Bill Collector getting a pay of Rs 28/- in grade 25-1-30 Now I am working as a Revenue Inspector for the last six months in Lakshkar Mohalla During the above period I have collected arrears that were outstanding from a number of years and reduced it from about Rs 13,000/- to Rs 3,600/- The percentage of collection of Lakshkar Mohalla for the year ending with 30th June 1944 shows that I have collected 95% during the year 1943-44 and this Mohalla stands first in collection for this year As I have to maintain a large family with a small pay I beg to request you to kindly confirm me in the existing vacancy of Revenue Inspector in which I am now incharge

As I have gained better experience of having worked in the Executive Collection Branches from about 17 years I request that I may kindly be given an exemption from passing the Departmental Test Viz, Municipal & District Board Examination considering my case as a special one, as in the case of Mr N Kumpamma Town Hall Clerk

For which act of kindness I shall remain ever grateful to you
